

Using In-Browser Translation Tools to Help Participants Translate MyConnectSV

While MyConnectSV is not currently available in languages other than English, many browsers (for both computers and mobile devices) offer in-browser automatic website translation. While the in-browser translation will not be perfect, it may still provide a good opportunity for your participants to utilize MyConnectSV to find resources and connect with you!

First, identify the device and browser that the participant is using. Then, follow the link below for the appropriate browser and device to find instructions on how to use the in-browser translator to translate MyConnectSV:
